

MAMMOTH PLANS

A1H Skyraider

1/8 scale

120" wing span

35 lbs.

Features retracts and flaps

Curtiss R40D

2.75 scale

102" wing span

35 lbs.

Boeing F4B2

Classic biplane fighter

90" wing span

23 lbs.

Shoestring

Famous formula 1 racer

41% of full size

94.5 wing span

28 lbs.

F6F Hellcat

1/8 scale

98" wing span

Features retracts and flaps

Dyke Delta

Popular home built design by John Dyke

88" wing span

24 lbs.

Not for beginners

Waco YKS-6

1/4 scale

99.3" wing span

28 lbs.

T-28B

North American Trainer

1/5 scale

102" span

40 lbs.

Features full retracts and flaps

Ryan SC

Highly doubled tapered wing successor of the Ryan S-T

112" wing span

23 lbs.

Stephens "AKRO"

Superb flying model of the int'l aerobatic competitor

100" wing span

Berliner/Joyce OJ-2

Version of the Navy observation plane of the early 1930's

102" wing span

30 lbs

Eastbourne Monoplane

1911, first great flyer in England

112" wing span

21 lbs

Focke-Wulf 44J

Primary flight trainer of both the Luftwaffe and Swedish in the 30's.

89.5" wing span

21 lbs.

Cessna 180

Featured in 1979 Giant Scale R/C Magazine (Vol.1)

108" wing span

Full operating wing flaps

23 lbs.

Focke-Wulf FW56 “Stosser”

Monoplane fighter of the 30's for many countries

103.5" wing span

20 lbs

Waterman “Aerobile”

Tailless roadable aircraft from the late 30's

92" wing span

22 lbs.